A letter just received by Mrs. Mary Newcomb from a relative in Wichita, Kan., states that there has been a heavy fall of snow there, covering the streets to a depth of 20 inches.

New Year's day being a holiday, the library will not be opened and books due that day may be returned on Saturday, the 4th, without payment of fine.

Yesterday from his son, John, written Dec. 1, from France, saying that he was "George F." Martin received a letter last week, but had been where he did not have a chance to write. He expects to come home as soon as some small matters can be arranged.

Ray Flint, who has been in training in one of the camps in the southern states, has returned and is at the home of his father, Fred A. Flint.

Thanks to the generosity of the different orders and societies in town, supplemented by personal contributions, the library will be enabled this year as in the past to furnish a goodly variety of papers and magazines for the reading table. It would be difficult to estimate the value of the reading table to the community, especially to the young people, and those who have aided in this way may feel assured of the hearty thanks of the librarians and all who come to the library.

John A. Perry, who was injured by a fall from a tree some ten days ago, is mending slowly, being now able to sit up for a short time daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Stewart and daughter, Madeline, of Montpelier partook of Christmas cheer at A. H. Jewett's last week. They were accompanied by Mrs. Stewart's mother, Mrs. Ellen Wheatley.

The following officers of Fraternity Rebekah lodge were elected at the annual meeting last week: N. G. Mrs. Mary Dutton; V. G. Mrs. Lilla Jeffords; secretary, Mrs. Mary McAllister; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Drury.

Miss Hulda Fuller has closed her labors at James Welch's and returned to her home in Newbury last Monday.

The many friends of R. A. Davidson of Groton are pleased to know that he is recovering from his recent illness.

Mrs. Frank Smith was thrown from a sleigh, receiving injuries which necessitated her going to Woodsville hospital for treatment. We hope she may fully recover soon.

The Christmas exercises at the north district at 2 p. m. and at town hall were in each case a marked success. Not to disparage any work done in the past, it is only correct to say that nothing finer has ever been presented in this part of the town. The entire audience, which was of fair size, was highly pleased and entertained. The parents of the school children, and the people in general of the community unite in extending thanks to the teachers, Miss McKay at the hill district, and Misses Smith and Cunningham of the village school, for their painstaking labor in preparing and carrying out in so successful a manner, a fine program, which reflected much credit to teachers and scholars, and afforded much pleasure to those permitted to be present.

NEWBURY

Dr. L. E. McKinley has accepted a position as second assistant pathologist and superintendent of the Vermont hospital for the insane at Waterbury. This leaves a fine opening for the right man to come to Newbury and step into a good practice. We understand that there is residence at a low rental for just such a man. Newbury needs and will welcome a doctor.

Howard Olmsted, a son of the late Allen Olmsted, has been in town for the past few days. Mr. Olmsted has a fine government position, with headquarters at Washington, D. C.

Dean and Glenn Bailey have been home during the holidays.

The schools did not open this week on account of there being considerable sickness in town.

BETHEL

Mrs. Elizabeth Shepherd, aged 81, died of heart trouble.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shepherd, aged 81 years, died at her home yesterday afternoon of heart failure. She had been confined to her bed most of the time for two weeks but had sat up on the day of her death. She came six months ago with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Houghtland, from Ann Arbor, Mich., where they had lived five years, previously living in Philadelphia. For 10 weeks she was at the sanatorium for treatment and since that time had continued the treatment in a house hired for their residence on River street.

She had been in failing health several years. Besides her daughter, she is survived by a son, E. W. Shepherd of Portland, Ore.; three grand children and two sisters, Mrs. John Grimm and Mrs. Nettie Shook of Philadelphia, Delaware county, Pa. Her grandson, Ray Houghtland, a student at Whitcomb high school, has been summoned from his school, where he was enjoying the holiday season. The funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Albert L. Dinsmore returned yesterday from a few days' visit in Windsor with his daughter, Mrs. K. W. Perkins.

Mrs. Laura Williams is in poor health and is under a physician's care.

A grange whist party will be held tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Bertha Hartwell.

Gilson's orchestra furnished music for a New Year's ball at Randolph last evening.

The vital statistics for 1918 compiled by Town Clerk Guy Wilson show a total of 49 deaths, 45 births and 14 marriages. Many years have elapsed since the deaths outnumbered the births. The fatal influenza epidemic is held responsible for the town's poor showing.

Miss Alfina Chiaradonna is at home for the holidays from her work at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Irene Cushing is here from Jackson college for the holidays.

Miss Kate Bullard is in Melrose, Mass., caring for John Rourke, who has been critically ill with pneumonia but now is reported improved. Mr. Rourke is a brother-in-law of Mrs. E. A. Davis and is well known from frequent visits here.

The opening of the village school is postponed indefinitely on account of influenza.

MARSHFIELD

A new edition of war savings stamps is now on sale at the postoffice. It is on the same general plan as the preceding edition and matures Dec. 31, 1924.

Miss Dorothy Wooster was called to East Cabot the last of the week to nurse in the Bisby family, who are ill with influenza.

Miss Marion Taylor, who is working for the National Life Ins. Co. of Montpelier, was at home to spend Christmas.

The Christmas cantata, entitled, "The Interrupted Program," which was given by the Sunday school children on Christmas eve, was very much enjoyed by a good-sized audience. The condition of the roads and inclemency of the weather prevented many from attending but those who braved the elements heartily commended the children for the admirable manner in which they sustained their parts.

Miss Ellen May of Barre and Mrs. Cora Palmer of Cabot were visitors in town Saturday.

Lewis Lange is moving his family this week to the M. E. Briggs farm, which he recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gay of Montpelier were recent visitors in town.

Mrs. Avon Hall and daughter returned Monday from a 10 days' visit with Mr. Hall in Springfield.

The postoffice department has issued an order that all mail for the A. E. F. in Europe should bear the name and address of the sender so that in case the addressee has returned to the United States the mail can be returned to the sender.

The heart of the rural carrier on route No. 1 was made glad at Christmas time this year by receiving from the family of one of his patrons the following lines of appreciation and good will:

When the days are short
And cold winds blow
And the snow is piling high,
What a welcome sight
Is the winter's light
Is the postman coming night!

Though the drifts are deep
And old Dobbin goes slow
And his hands with cold do ache,
He is sure to call at each one's door
The mail to give, or take.

He is always cheerful
In spite of it all
And bits of news will tell
As our stamps we buy
For letters galore
And perhaps a package as well.

To him—so faithful in all he does
As he comes day after day—
We wish much joy
At this Christmas time,
And health on the New Year's day.

If all patrons realized how much a little kind thoughtfulness on their part, like the above, helps to smooth the way over rough and drifting roads and relieve the weary monotony day after day, they would be more ready to pass the good word along instead of taking all for granted as a matter of course and so often criticizing rather than praising. Kind words cost nothing but who can estimate their value when fully spoken?

CORINTH

Otis Page has sold his cows and pigs and is now to go to Hyde Park to care for his aged mother and stepfather.

There were 65 members added to the Red Cross here by the Christmas drive.

Mrs. Selden Brooks, who has been at the sanatorium for a week for treatment, returned to her home in South Royalton on Monday night, expecting to come here once a week for treatment until she is fully recovered.

The report of the Randolph rest room for the year just ending is very gratifying to those in charge, as the room has been liberally patronized, proving that it is an institution much needed in town. The largest attendance for one month was the month of May, when there were 134 registered. During the year the attendance has averaged nearly 100 per month, the total amounting to much above 1,100 people. The business men and the King's Daughters pay the most of the expense of running the room, which is such a convenience to the people in the rural districts.

W. H. Marshall of Middlesex and his daughter, Miss Leila Marshall of Greenfield, Mass., are the guests at the home of G. N. Billings for a few days.

Burt Converse and daughter, Josephine, were in East Montpelier to visit Albert McKnight and family recently.

DON'T BE BALD

How to Make Hair Grow Strong, Thick and Lustrous.

If your hair is thinning out, don't wait another day, but go to E. A. Brown & Co. and drug stores everywhere, and get a bottle of Parkin's hair cream, the true efficient hair grower.

Don't say: "It's the same old story; I've heard it before," but try a bottle at your risk. They guarantee Parkin's care to stop falling hair and stimulate a new growth, banish all dandruff and almost instantly stop scalp itch, or money back.

Parkin's care contains just the elements needed to properly invigorate the hair roots. It's a prime favorite with discriminating ladies because it makes the hair so soft and lustrous, and appears twice as abundant.

Parkin's care is inexpensive and easily obtainable at all drug stores.—Ad.

EAST BRAINTREE

The following officers were elected at the last regular meeting of Snowville grange: Master, David Abel; overseer, George Cassidy; steward, Lynn Hutchinson; assistant steward, Hubbard Wheeler; secretary, Rose Smith; treasurer, H.
